

WHAT YOU TOLD US LAST TIME ...

Which street tree planting option do you prefer?

75%

Medium & large deciduous and evergreen

0%

Alternating native evergreen

25%

Medium & large native evergreen

Do you agree that low value trees should be removed?

75%

Yes, remove any trees that will not provide adequate canopy

25%

No, low value trees should be retained until they begin to decline in health

Did you participate in the Stage 1 consultation?

67%

No

23%

Yes

Proposed Streetscape Plan (snapshot of the whole street)

For the full streetscape plan, please visit: <https://participate.hobsonsbay.vic.gov.au/urban-forest-strategy/grace-street-green-street>

New tree

Corymbia maculata 'ST1' Lowanna

New tree

Jacaranda mimosifolia

Corymbia maculata 'ST1' Lowanna

A compact tree that is great for streetscapes with limited space.

A fantastic shade tree.

Common Name Compact Spotted Gum
Foliage Evergreen
Form Oval
Mature Size Height 10 x Width 7m

Jacaranda mimosifolia

An attractive feature tree with prolific purple flowering during Spring.

A great filtered shade tree in gardens.

A deciduous tree that will allow more light and warmth through in winter.

Common Name Jacaranda
Foliage Deciduous
Form Branches Ascending
Mature Size Height 10 x Width 8m